

WENTWORTH WINS

Washburn Freshmen Fight All The Way, But Lose 31 to 0.

One of the most fiercely contested football games ever seen on the Academy campus was played yesterday between the cadets and Washburn Freshmen, of Washburn College, Topeka, Kansas. The game was replete with thrills, and at no time during the contest did the winners have a chance to loaf. Washburn, although defeated, was far from disgraced. Any number of times they broke loose for long gains and would carry the ball far into the cadet's territory, but at the crucial test the soldiers would stiffen, and take the ball on downs. Wentworth made a touchdown in the first quarter on end runs and line bucks. They were irresistible. Their interference on end runs was magnificent. Their line bucking was of the bone breaking variety. Every play went with the precision of clock work. After this touchdown and during the remainder of the first half, the cadets played a kicking game. The ball was in the home territory during this time. Washburn doing all of the rushing and playing themselves out. They would make a first down or two, but the punch was lacking. Several field goals were attempted, and a few were mighty close.

The second half the cadets took up the rushing game and made four touchdowns and kicked one goal. Their playing was a revelation to those who had seen their early attempts at the game. End runs and line bucks were interspersed with bewildering forward passes. A few fumbles were made, but none were very costly. Every man was in the game, and had to be, to make this showing against a team of the caliber of the visitors.

This game was a good closing to a bad beginning. Starting out with only three men with any foot ball experience, Coach Sellers kept pegging with his green material and in the face of many discouragements, rounded out a night powerful machine.

Miss Opal Schall of Sedalia spent Thanksgiving here with Miss Dora Neet.

Earl W. Young Dies Suddenly.

Word was received here this morning that Earl W. Young while on a hunting trip south of Aullville had been taken suddenly ill yesterday and died before medical aid could reach him. When he was taken sick, Dr. W. G. Meng, who had accompanied him, hastened to a telephone to summon medical assistance, and on his return found Mr. Young dead. Mr. Young had been suffering with heart trouble for some time, and his death, no doubt, was due to this affliction.

Mr. Young was a son of Mrs. Emma Young, of this city, and was born February 11, 1876. His whole life was spent near his birth place. He was for several years brakeman on the Missouri Pacific railroad, running from Sedalia to Kansas City. He had a wide acquaintance and was well liked by the traveling public. He was a most obliging official, ever ready to lend assistance to travelers, especially to old ladies and children. At the time of his death he was in the employ of the Prudential Life Insurance Co. In May 1904 he was married to Miss Florence Lighter of Aullville. Besides his wife and mother he is survived by one son Earl W., Jr., two brothers, Richard and Paul B., and one sister, Mrs. Frank Hord.

The Intelligencer joins with the friends and relatives in this vicinity in expressions of sorrow to the bereaved wife and mother.

The body will be brought to Lexington this evening.

Goose Pond Minstrels.

The seats for the Goose Pond Minstrels are going like a plate of baked turkey placed before a bunch of Lexington editors—just disappearing like—Every effort is being made to keep them out of the hands of speculators, but as the city ordinances provides no punishment for speculation in minstrel tickets, Manager McFrohan is in despair. The public better keep on the alert and grab tickets at the first opportunity.

Misses Grace Webb and Rebecca Lewis spent Thanksgiving in Kansas City.

Death of Mrs. Laura L. Young.

Mrs. Laura L. Young died at 12:15 o'clock Friday morning at the home of her son, Felix G., on Bloom street, after an illness of only a few days of bronchitis. Mrs. Young had been in feeble health for sometime, but her condition aroused no special alarm until seized with bronchitis, which owing to her advanced age and general debility she was unable to conquer.

Mrs. Young, whose maiden name was Laura L. Barnett, was born in Richmond, Kentucky, November 30, 1841, and was nearly 72 years of age. She came with her parents to Missouri in 1850, and on July 13, 1869, she was married to Felix G. Young. Mr. Young died in March 1877. To this union one son and one daughter were born and survive, Miss Frances Elizabeth, and Felix G., both of this city.

Mrs. Young was one of God's loveliest. She was a conscientious Christian, true to every instinct of womanhood, lovable and charitable in every thought and act. She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church, and as long as her health would permit bore an active part in its work. She spent nearly all of her life in this community, where her friends are many, and who will mourn with the son and daughter, at the passing of this true Christian woman.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. S. O. Hall, were held from the home Saturday evening in Macphelah.

LeJune Wins in Straight Falls.

The wrestling match held in the Hippodrome yesterday under the auspices of the Moose Lodge, was a complete success from every standpoint. The crowd was large and good natured, the wrestling exciting, especially the main attraction between William LeJune of this city and Fred Hupfner of Kansas City. The former winning in straight falls. The first fall took only three minutes, and the second fifteen minutes. The preliminaries to the main show were worth the price of admission. Both bouts revealed some high class work, and was fully appreciated by the crowd present.

Wilson-Fredendall Store Burglarized.

Monday morning about 1 o'clock, when Night Watchman Rogers was making his rounds, he detected an unusual noise at the rear of Wilson-Fredendall's store. Further investigation revealed burglars at work. One was in the act of passing suit cases through an opening made in one of the rear doors, and was tagged by Mr. Rogers. He had two suit cases well packed with ladies' petticoats, hosiery, etc., the other case was filled with men's furnishings. Mr. Rogers believes that there was at least one other engaged in the work. They had gained entrance by boring out a lower panel in one of the rear doors. The work bears evidence of being done by professionals. As far as can be ascertained two other suit cases are missing. The burglars had been pretty well over the store, and had their grips packed for a silent departure, when Mr. Rogers interrupted them. The captured darkey is not seriously wounded.

Commendatory resolutions of Mr. Roger's watchfulness by the city council will be published as soon as obtainable.

Sixty-Third Birthday.

Saturday we were invited to forsake our own board at the noon hour, and break bread with Judge and Mrs. Zach W. Wright, in honor of Judge Wright's sixty-third birthday. This yearly event is one long to be remembered by those who are present. The whole hearted hospitality of Judge and Mrs. Wright, which is so well known at all times, makes it a delight to gather with them. The Judge is never happier than when surrounded by his family and friends on these occasions. His good wife, who has the culinary art reduced to an exact science, revels in preparing dishes for this event. And such dishes! The appetite needs no prodding, the savory odors make the lips quiver in anticipation like the promise of a kiss from the sweet, rosy lips of a blushing maiden. (Apologies to the bachelor friends present.) No realization is quite so satisfying as one of Mrs. Wright's dinners. May they both experience many more happy years in the full enjoyment of life's best blessings.
